III. Administration and Enforcement.

A. Administration.

1. General provisions. This Ordinance shall be interpreted, administered, and enforced by the Department Director, or their designee.
2. Responsibilities of the Department Director, or their designee, shall include:
 - a) To ensure compliance with the purpose and intent of this Ordinance;
 - b) To maintain records of all official actions taken under this Ordinance; and
 - c) To enforce with local, county, and state government officials the provisions of this Ordinance.
3. Powers. The Department Director or their designee, shall have the powers necessary to enforce the provisions of this Ordinance, including but not limited to:
 - a) Have access to the property for the purpose of monitoring compliance and investigating complaints.
 - b) Perform outreach to property users on the use of the property consistent with the provisions of this ordinance.
 - c) Take appropriate actions to enforce the provisions of this ordinance.
 - d) Work with the Iowa County Government Committee to promote and maintain the relevance this ordinance.
 - e) Temporarily close the property, or part of the property, to some or all uses for public health, safety and welfare reasons; or for special events. Non-emergency closure of any part of the property under lease shall require the agreement of the Lessee.

B. Enforcement Goals.

The initial goal of enforcing this ordinance shall be to educate and correct uses and/or behavior that violates the provisions of this ordinance. In the case where the action or behavior is egregious, the violator is uncooperative, and/or the action or behavior is a multiple offense by the same person, the Department Director, or their designee, shall be authorized to take the action deemed appropriate to the offense.

C. Citations.

1. The Department Director, or their designee, and officers of the Iowa County Sheriff's Office are hereby authorized to issue citations to any organization or Person, as defined in Section II.
2. A citation issued to any violator of this Ordinance shall include all of the information required for citations by § 66.0113, Wis. Stats.
3. If the violator receives a summons in addition to the citation, the violator must appear in court for the hearing on the citation.
4. A citation and summons issued under this Ordinance can be served on a violator in person or by Certified Mail by the Department Director, their designee, or by the Iowa County Sheriff's Office.

D. Penalties.

A single violation of this Ordinance may subject the violator to a citation with a cash forfeiture of up to $500 plus statutory court costs, assessments, surcharges, and fees, as determined by the Iowa County Circuit Court. Continuing violations can be the subject of an additional violation and corresponding citation for each 24-hour period that the violation continues. The cash forfeiture, statutory court costs, assessments, surcharges, and fees shall be paid to the Iowa County Clerk of Circuit Court at 222 North Iowa Street, Dodgeville, Wisconsin 53533. The Clerk of Circuit Court shall issue receipts for cash forfeitures, statutory court costs, assessments, surcharges, and fees paid under this ordinance.

E. Initiation of Legal Action.
