A letter (Nov. 2, 1971) from the County Highway Committee was read.

To the Iowa County Board of Supervisors:

November 5, 1971

Gentlemen:

At the October 19, 1971 session of the County Board the Highway Committee was instructed to bring in a recommendation pertaining to the petitions requesting the County to place the County Home Road on the County Trunk system.

Due to the many differences of opinion the Committee believes it would be a matter for the Board to decide. The Committee does believe however, that if favorable action is taken by the Board it should not involve a greater distance west than the junction with C.T.H. "CH".

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors:

The Highway Committee proposes to improve the following County Roads by construction, relocation, grade and base or bituminous surfacing.

1. C.T.H. "Z" - Complete the remaining portion in Wyoming Township by Grade and Base to the junction with C.T.H. "T".

2. C.T.H. "T" - Junction C.T.H. "Z" to Junction S.T.H. "23", Grade and Base.

3. C.T.H. "NN" - Junction S.T.H. "130" to Junction C.T.H. "N" Grade and Base, replace a bridge.

4. C.T.H. "HH" - Complete the remaining portion by ditching, base and bituminous surfacing.

5. C.T.H. "QQ" - Junction S.T.H. "39" to Junction S.T.H. "39" ditch, base, bituminous surface.

6. C.T.H. "B" - Junction S.T.H. "39" to Junction Laxey Hill grade and base.

7. C.T.H. "J" - Junction U.S.H. "18" to Junction C.T.H. "E" grade and base.

8. C.T.H. "DD" - Junction C.T.H. "W" to C.T.H. "K", grade and base.

9. C.T.H. "X" - Bituminous surface

10. C.T.H. "B" - Bituminous surface for the Laxey Bridge portion.

The Cowling Bridge on "KK" must be replaced in 1972.

The Johnson Bridge on C.T.H. "G" is too narrow and considered unsafe and should be replaced in 1972.

The Lewis Bridge on C.T.H. "A" is narrow and must be widened.

The Maughn or Union Mills Bridge on C.T.H. "Q" is very narrow and becoming hazardous on a medium heavy traveled road and should be replaced.

The Committee recommends and will apply for F.A.S. Funds for the construction of these Bridge Projects.

A very full construction program is scheduled for 1972, probably more than can be accomplished in one year. Emergency conditions will naturally take precedent over the planned proposals.

Resolution (2-3-72) for cutback at the GAR Home for veterans at Kings.

RESOLUTION NO. 3

A Resolution of the Iowa County Board of Supervisors relating to cutbacks at the GAR HOME for Veterans at King.

WHEREAS, the Grand Army Home for Veterans at King has provided needed services for Wisconsin Veterans since 1887, and

WHEREAS, care for the 720 patients at King costs the County taxpayers nothing, and the net cost of care at King is less than the State-County share of the cost of nursing care in local nursing homes under Medicaid, and

WHEREAS, the Veterans Housing loans and small loan programs have paid their own way since 1945, but the continuing addition of investment funds promised in 1947 with the liquor tax was stopped in 1951, and investment funds for housing loans are now nearly exhausted, and

WHEREAS, the budget cuts proposed for loan program staff, the cut in funds proposed for Special Viet Nam Veterans Assistance, and inadequate addition of investment funds for the loan programs will cut back sharply in assistance provided all veterans.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1) That the State should be expanding the State Veterans Home at King to provide nursing care for the state's aging Citizens instead of throwing the burden back on the County taxpayers by phasing out King,

2) That a determined effort should be made to provide more assistance to the young Veteran returning from Viet Nam instead of cutting back,

3) That the Veterans Housing loan and small loan programs should be adequately staffed and given the investment funds they need by return of 50% of the liquor tax enacted for Veterans, instead of the half-hearted funding and staff cuts proposed,

4) That all members of the Legislature be asked to Resist the efforts being made to single out veterans for abuse, and to restore budget cuts proposed that would eventually destroy the State Veterans Programs, and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the County Clerk shall be and is hereby authorized and directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Governor Patrick J. Lucey, Senator Gordon Roseleip and Representative Joanne Duren.
